

Scene 1

- Narrator 1: Welcome to our musical in rhyme and in song.
We hope that you brought your umbrellas along!
- Narrator 2: We'll be entering the rainforest where, we can safely say,
You're sure to see a little rain each and every day!
- Narrator 3: From the tops of the trees to the forest floor,
You'll meet a host of creatures that you've never seen before.
- Narrator 4: So come on, everyone! To the rainforest we'll go.
'Cause now it's time to start our show!
- Narrator 5: Agouti is the name of the first creature we'll see.
They're furry little rodents; some live in the trunks of trees.
- Narrator 6: And if a predator comes along and gives them a scare,
They've been known to jump six feet high in the air!
- Narrator 7: The rainforest wouldn't be the same without them,
So why don't we go there and learn more about 'em?
